Partner at Spiro Harrison &
Nelson*

Gottuso joins Spiro Harrison & Nelson after serving as General Counsel to multiple corporations in both the private and public sectors. For more than 20 years, he served as General Counsel for Hunter Douglas Inc., a multi-billion-dollar international consumer products manufacturer, where he guided the company through high-stakes strategic and operational matters, including mergers and acquisitions, complex commercial contracts, real estate transactions, product marketing, brand protection, employment matters and significant litigation.

In addition to serving as a trusted advisor to executive leadership, Gottuso also led governmental relations and lobbying efforts during his tenure at Hunter Douglas. Following his in-house career, he has served as a fractional General Counsel and strategic legal advisor to companies seeking practical, business-focused legal counsel.

"Rich brings our firm an extraordinary depth of experience that will help our firm grow and expand the scope of outside general counsel services we provide to clients," said Jason Spiro, Managing Partner at Spiro Harrison & Nelson. "His extensive corporate leadership background, litigation management experience and practical business approach will be an incredible asset to both our clients and our growing team."

Prior to his in-house experience, Gottuso worked at two of New Jersey's premier law firms.

"I'm thrilled to join Spiro Harrison & Nelson, and I look forward to working alongside this talented group of attorneys, highly regarded for running a results-driven practice," said Richard Gottuso.

“The firm’s reputation for handling challenging, complex matters with creative and strategic approaches is exactly what I was seeking in the next step of my career.”

Gottuso earned his Juris Doctor from Emory University School of Law after attending Syracuse University. He is admitted to practice law in New Jersey and New York.
