TA Dedicated has been ranked #21 on the 2026 Transport Topics Top Dedicated Contract Carriers list.

EAGAN, MN, UNITED STATES, May 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TA Dedicated, a TFI

International (NYSE: TFI) company and one of the largest dedicated fleet operators in North America, has been ranked #21 on the 2026 Transport Topics Top Dedicated Contract Carriers list, a sub-ranking of Transport Topics' annual Top 100 Logistics Companies in North America.

This ranking reflects the work our team does every day to engineer reliable, customized solutions for our customers.”

Eric Anson, President of TA Dedicated

“This ranking reflects the work our team does every day to engineer reliable, customized solutions for our customers,” said Eric Anson, President of TA Dedicated. “Dedicated contract carriage is our core business, and we compete in it by bringing deep supply chain engineering expertise, a strong safety culture, and a network built for complexity. Being recognized among the top dedicated carriers in North America validates the direction we’re taking as a company.”

The Transport Topics Top 100 Logistics Companies ranks the largest third-party logistics (3PL) providers in North America. Sub-rankings cover dedicated contract carriage, freight brokerage, warehousing and distribution, refrigerated warehousing, and ocean freight. TA Dedicated ranked #21 on the dedicated contract carriage sub-ranking, which recognizes asset-based providers that supply drivers, transportation equipment, and management personnel to customers under multi-year contracts.

TA Dedicated operates more than 1,100 power units in dedicated contract carriage and serves customers across automotive, industrial and manufacturing, and building products sectors. The company’s supply chain engineering team designs and manages customized fleet networks for shippers navigating capacity constraints, cost pressure, and service complexity. TA Dedicated also provides intermodal and drayage services and manages more than 4 million square feet of warehousing across North America, giving customers access to integrated transportation and logistics solutions from a single provider.
