

Adega Gaucha Locations to Host Brazil World Cup 2026 Viewing Events in Orlando and Kissimmee

The Florida-based Brazilian steakhouse will host scheduled viewing events for Brazil's first three group-stage matches.

ORLANDO; KISSIMMEE, FL, UNITED STATES, June 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Adega Gaucha Brazilian Steakhouse will host viewing events for Brazil's first three World Cup 2026 group-stage matches at its Orlando and Kissimmee locations, offering local residents, visitors, and Brazilian soccer fans a place to gather during the tournament.

The events will take place during Brazil's first three scheduled matches of the tournament:

Saturday, June 13 at 6:00 PM: Brazil vs. Morocco at Adega Gaucha Kissimmee

Friday, June 19 at 8:30 PM: Brazil vs. Haiti at Adega Gaucha Orlando

Wednesday, June 24 at 6:00 PM: Scotland vs. Brazil at Adega Gaucha Orlando

The match-day program is being organized for Brazil's first three games only. A limited ticketed option will be available for guests who want a pre-arranged food and beverage package during those matches.

Each ticket is $60 per person and includes one Churrasco Extravaganza, two drinks, and tax and service fee. Drink options include caipirinha, wine, beer, well drink, or soft drink.

Tickets are sold by a partner company, not directly by Adega Gaucha. Guests interested in attending can purchase tickets through the official ticket link:

“Adeга Gaucha serves many guests with strong ties to Brazilian culture, as well as visitors who are interested in experiencing that culture in Florida,” said Ricardo Oliveira CEO of Adeга Gaucha. “The World Cup is an important moment for the Brazilian community, and these viewing events give fans a place to come together during Brazil’s opening matches.”

When Brazil plays, it becomes more than a match. It becomes a gathering of culture, pride, food, and community.”

Ricardo Oliveira CEO of Adeга Gaucha

In addition to the ticketed viewing events, Adeга Gaucha’s bar service will remain open as usual on a first come, first served basis. Other World Cup games will also be shown on bar TVs. The opening of the Adeга Room for additional matches will be evaluated based on demand.

The viewing events reflect the restaurant’s broader connection to Brazilian culture in Florida. Adeга Gaucha has locations in Orlando, Kissimmee, and Deerfield Beach, serving both local communities and visitors across Central and South Florida.
