

Experro Earns Recognition in G2 Summer 2026 Enterprise Commerce Reports

A press release on Experro earns 55 badges across G2 Summer 2026 Reports for enterprise search, DXP, Headless CMS, personalization & eCommerce.

CHARLOTTE, NC, UNITED STATES, June 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- We are proud to announce that Experro has earned 55 badges across multiple categories in the G2 Summer 2026

Reports, reinforcing our position as a leading AI-powered digital commerce platform for modern enterprise brands.

The latest G2 2026 Reports recognized Experro across several high-impact categories, including Enterprise Search Software, Digital Experience Platforms (DXP), Headless CMS, Web Content Management, eCommerce Personalization, eCommerce Analytics, Merchandising, etc.

From the G2 Grid Report for Summer 2026 to the G2 Momentum Grid Report, G2 Mid-Market Grid Report, and G2 Regional Grid Report, Experro continued to earn recognition across global and regional markets, particularly in Asia Pacific and India.

These recognitions reflect the trust our customers place in us and the momentum we continue to build in the enterprise commerce space. Every badge awarded in the G2 Summer 2026 Grid Reports is based on verified customer feedback, satisfaction scores, and market presence data collected directly by G2.

Among the notable recognitions, Experro was featured in:

G2 Grid Report for Enterprise Search Software

G2 Grid Report for Headless CMS

G2 Grid Report for Web Content Management

G2 Grid Report for Digital Experience Platforms (DXP)

G2 eCommerce Report 2026 categories including personalization, analytics, search, and merchandising

G2 Momentum Grid Report categories for Headless CMS, DXP, and Web Content Management
Multiple G2 Regional Grid Report and Mid-Market Grid Report categories across India and Asia Pacific

These recognitions further validate Experro's mission to help enterprise brands deliver intelligent, personalized, and lightning-fast digital experiences powered by AI-native commerce technology.

"Earning a Leader position in a G2 Report is highly competitive and rooted in verified customer reviews. Congratulations to Experro for achieving this distinction. Buyers can be confident this ranking reflects the authentic experiences of real users."

Godard Abel
CEO At G2

At Experro, we believe digital commerce should feel intuitive, intelligent, and deeply personalized. As enterprise brands continue to raise expectations around customer experience, we remain focused on building a platform that combines AI-powered search, content, merchandising, analytics, and personalization into one seamless ecosystem.

"Our recognition in the G2 Summer 2026 Reports is a direct reflection of the trust our customers place in Experro and the relentless innovation our team brings to the platform every day. Luxury and enterprise commerce brands today require more than disconnected tools — they need a unified AI-driven experience platform capable of delivering speed, relevance, personalization, and measurable business impact at scale. We are proud to be recognized by our customers and the broader market as a platform helping redefine the future of digital commerce."

Jayesh Mori
CEO At Experro

From 20 badges in G2's 2025 Summer reports to 55 badges in Summer 2026, Experro has come a long way. This is more than a milestone for us — it is validation that modern enterprise commerce is moving toward AI-first, experience-led digital transformation.

As brands continue investing in unified commerce experiences, enterprise search, AI-powered personalization, and composable architecture, Experro remains committed to helping businesses create exceptional customer journeys that drive engagement, conversions, and long-term loyalty.
