The Delaware County Pennsylvania Domestic Relations Section announces partnership with GreenCourt to enhance service to families.

CARROLLTON, GA, UNITED STATES, June 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Delaware County Pennsylvania Domestic Relations Section announces partnership with GreenCourt to enhance service to families.

We are focused on tools that make our work more efficient while improving outcomes for the families we serve"

Patricia Coacher, Director of Delaware County DRS

The Delaware County (PA) Domestic Relations Section (DRS) announces its partnership with GreenCourt Legal Technologies, LLC (GreenCourt) to improve access and efficiency for families through modernized electronic filing and document processing.

GovLink, GreenCourt's modern electronic filing, document management, and workflow platform, will provide Delaware County with a more efficient and streamlined process for managing cases, documents, and filings from pro se litigants and attorneys. By reducing manual processes and increasing automation, GovLink enables staff to review, route, accept, reject, and file-stamp documents within a single application. Filers will also benefit from a secure, user-friendly portal with immediate electronic access to their file-stamped documents.

Delaware County is excited to partner with GreenCourt as part of its continued commitment to modernizing child support operations and improving service delivery for families. Through the adoption of GovLink, the county aims to streamline filing workflows, increase visibility across case processing, and reduce administrative burden on staff while enhancing the overall experience for both internal teams and the public. As Jay Bland, Chief Growth Officer noted, "this partnership represents a meaningful step forward in how we support families and improve access to critical services through technology."

Patricia Coacher, Director of Delaware County DRS, emphasized the importance of the collaboration and the practical impact it will have on daily operations within Delaware County. "We are focused on tools that make our work more efficient while improving outcomes for the families we serve," she said. "GovLink gives our team the ability to better manage cases, reduce manual processes, and ensure we are operating with greater speed and transparency." The partnership reflects a shared goal of continuous improvement and delivering modern, user-centered solutions in the child support space.
