

City University of Seattle Names Loria Yeadon as 2026 Commencement Speaker

YMCA of Greater Seattle CEO to address graduates at T-Mobile Park on June 13

SEATTLE, WA, UNITED STATES, June 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- City University of Seattle today announced that Loria Yeadon, President and CEO of the YMCA of Greater Seattle, will serve as the keynote speaker at CityU's 2026 Commencement ceremony on June 13 at 1:00 p.m. at T-Mobile Park.

Yeadon made history when she became the first woman and first person of color to lead the YMCA of Greater Seattle in the organization's 150-year history. That she holds that distinction in the Y's sesquicentennial year is no small detail. Under her leadership, the Y has expanded its commitment to whole person health, deepened support for military families, and built community partnerships that extend far beyond the Pacific Northwest.

"City University of Seattle was built for people who blaze their own trail, and that is a story I know personally and celebrate. My path from electrical engineer to patent attorney to leading one of the Pacific Northwest's most established nonprofits was anything but linear. The graduates crossing that stage on June 13 have already proven they have what it takes to make their mark in the world. I am incredibly honored to be part of this moment, especially as the Y celebrates 150 years of serving this community."

CityU, founded in 1973, serves working adults, veterans, caregivers, and mid-career professionals across the U.S. and in six countries. The June ceremony will mark the first commencement under President Suzanne Elise Walsh, JD, herself a historic first.

“Loria’s path — disciplined, nonlinear, and mission-driven — is exactly what our graduates need to hear,” said Walsh. “She didn’t leave her past behind; she brought it with her. That’s the charge I want this class to carry forward.”

Commencement will be held at T-Mobile Park, 1250 1st Ave S, Seattle. For more information, visit cityu.edu.
