

Concierge Auctions Earns 10 Telly Awards, Honoring Excellence in Videography and Real Estate Marketing

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, June 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Concierge Auctions, the world's largest luxury real estate auction house, has once again been recognized by the Telly Awards for its creative brilliance in videography and real estate marketing, earning 10 awards this year across multiple categories.

Honoring excellence in video and television across all screens, with 14,000 entries from 55 countries, the largest season in Telly Awards history, this season's winners embodied what it means to "Capture the Original," delivering video work that redefined what's possible across every screen. Other winners include additional leading industry names such as Paramount, Variety, Disney, NASA, and Newsweek.

The awards recognize Concierge Auctions' continued commitment to elevating luxury real estate marketing through cinematic property films, innovative campaigns, and compelling visual storytelling. Among the year's standout achievements was 3 The Point in Coronado, California, one of the firm's record-breaking sales of 2025, which earned three Telly Awards. The transaction achieved the highest price ever recorded in Coronado Cays and the second-highest sale in Coronado history.

From waterfront estates and architectural landmarks to destination properties around the globe, Concierge Auctions' award-winning work demonstrates how strategic storytelling can connect extraordinary properties with qualified buyers worldwide.

"In a rapidly evolving media landscape, visual storytelling is no longer confined to a single screen or format. Our work is about meeting audiences where they are, pushing creative boundaries, and ensuring every property is brought to life through compelling, original storytelling that resonates across every platform," said Lily Smith, Director of Visual Media of Concierge Auctions.
