With over a decade of experience in the industry, Ms. Chan has certainly proven herself an expert in the field. As a dynamic, results driven leader, Ms. Chan is a Clinical Aromatherapist at Deli Aroma LLC. As a student, she published research findings with international aromatherapy journals. In 2015, she served the board of a world leading aromatherapy association (Alliance of International Aromatherapists). She was also the chair of the publication committee. Deli Aroma LLC is dedicated to holistic healing protocols and research. Grounded by pharmacology, her specialties are in the healing of psychiatric/neurological issues and diabetes. Based on Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) framework, with the synergistic effects of combining the therapeutic approach with chemistry, her remedies are very effective.

Deli Aroma plays a crucial role in the industry by providing insights and potential avenues for future research collaborations with labs or institutions. While the company can handle all aspects of research, Fai believes in the power of teamwork. She understands when to delegate responsibilities to others, allowing them to develop and contribute their expertise.

Many refer to this approach as integrative medicine because it bridges the gap between traditional healing practices and modern scientific research. However, it's a complex field as people often employ various health and wellness practices alongside traditional medical advice.

Areas of expertise include, but are not limited to holistic healing, Traditional Chinese Medicine, and aromatherapy.

Throughout her illustrious career, Ms. Chan has received many awards and accolades and has been recognized worldwide for her accomplishments. She will be honored at IAOTP's annual awards gala at the iconic Plaza Hotel in New York City this December for her selection of Top Aromatherapist of the Year for 2026.

The President of the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP), Stephanie Cirami, stated: "Choosing Ms. Chan for this honor was an easy decision for our panel to make. She is inspirational, influential, and a true visionary and thought leader. We cannot wait to meet her and celebrate her accomplishments at this year's gala."

Looking back, Ms. Chan attributes her success to persistence and mentors she had along the way. When not working, she enjoys writing, reading and cooking. In the future, she looks forward to continuing to expand her business.
