

AlmaLinux OS Foundation Chair To Speak at Southeast Linux Fest 2026

FORT MYERS, FL, UNITED STATES, June 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The AlmaLinux OS Foundation, the nonprofit that stewards the free and community-governed open source enterprise Linux distribution

AlmaLinux OS, today announced that board chair benny Vasquez is slated to speak at Southeast Linux Fest, an annual Linux and open source software conference taking place June 12-14 at the Sonesta Charlotte Lower South End in Charlotte, North Carolina.

From 11-11:45 a.m. CDT in Salon A (Altispeed Ballroom) on Sunday, June 14, Vasquez will present a session titled "setenforce 0' Is Not the Solution: Living With SELinux," where she will focus on practical strategies for working with Security-Enhanced Linux without disabling critical security protections.

During the session, Vasquez will walk attendees through the commands and troubleshooting techniques that resolve the majority of SELinux denials, explain how to interpret audit logs more effectively, and outline when administrators should rely on booleans versus creating custom policies. Designed for Linux users and system administrators alike, attendees will walk away with practical, real-world strategies for troubleshooting Security-Enhanced Linux issues while maintaining secure and stable environments.
