

Nobel University Celebrates May 2026 Graduation Ceremony in Los Angeles

Over 30 graduates walked the stage to receive bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nobel University proudly celebrated its May 2026 graduation ceremony in Los Angeles, honoring more than 30 students who walked across the stage to receive their Bachelor's or Master's degrees in Business Administration.

The ceremony brought together graduates, families, faculty, administrators, and invited guests to recognize the academic achievement, perseverance, and professional growth of Nobel University students. For many graduates, the event represented not only the completion of a degree program, but also a major personal milestone and a step forward in their careers, leadership goals, and future educational pursuits.

With a history spanning more than 25 years, Nobel University has continued to serve students through practical, career-focused education designed to support professional advancement and lifelong learning. As an institution accredited by the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools, also known as TRACS, Nobel University maintains its commitment to academic quality, institutional development, and student-centered education.

“Nobel University is proud to celebrate the achievements of our graduates in Los Angeles,” said John Kim, President and CEO of Nobel University. “This graduation ceremony represents more than the completion of a degree; it represents courage, perseverance, and the belief that education can transform lives. For more than 25 years, Nobel University has been committed to serving students through practical, career-focused education, and today’s graduates reflect that mission in action. Each graduate who walked the stage has demonstrated the discipline to finish what they started and the vision to build a stronger future for themselves, their families, and their communities.”

Graduates from the Bachelor of Business Administration and Master of Business Administration programs were recognized for completing academic requirements designed to strengthen knowledge in management, leadership, finance, marketing, entrepreneurship, and organizational decision-making. These programs prepare students to apply business concepts in real-world professional settings and to pursue advancement in a wide range of industries.

Family members and supporters filled the ceremony with celebration as graduates were called forward to receive recognition for their accomplishments. The event emphasized the importance of higher education, professional development, and the role of business education in preparing graduates to contribute meaningfully to their organizations, communities, and industries.

In addition to its academic programs, Nobel University continues to build its broader institutional presence through student services, partnerships, and athletics. Nobel University is also a member of the National Christian College Athletic Association, also known as the NCCAA, for men’s baseball.

Nobel University continues to expand its academic offerings, student services, and institutional partnerships while maintaining a focus on accessible, relevant, and student-centered education. The May 2026 graduation ceremony served as an important moment of recognition for the university’s growing community of business students and alumni.
