Founded by St. Croix native Frederick A. Morton Jr., TEMPO Networks launched in the U.S. Virgin Islands and has since grown into the Caribbean's leading media and cultural platform, connecting audiences across the English, Spanish, French, and Dutch Caribbean through television, digital media, social platforms, live events, and original programming.

Rooted in emancipation, heritage, freedom, and cultural pride, St. John Celebration stands among the Caribbean's most significant cultural festivals, bringing together generations through music, storytelling, food, pageantry, and community engagement. As TEMPO continues celebrating its 20th anniversary, the partnership reflects a shared commitment to honoring Caribbean culture and ensuring its stories continue to reach audiences worldwide.

The partnership also continues a longstanding relationship between TEMPO Networks and the U.S. Virgin Islands, which has played an important role in the company's history from its earliest days. Over the years, TEMPO has produced some of the U.S. Virgin Islands' most memorable cultural and entertainment experiences, including activations and events at Frederiksted Pier, Cramer Park, the St. Croix Race Track, the Agriculture Fair Grounds, and Rock de TEMPO at Lionel Roberts Stadium.

As part of the collaboration, St. John Celebration will also recognize TEMPO Networks during its 20th anniversary year with a dedicated TEMPO Night in the Carnival Village, celebrating the company's contributions to Caribbean media, tourism, music, and culture over the past two decades.

Frederick A. Morton Jr., Founder and CEO of TEMPO Networks remarked, "To celebrate our 20th anniversary through St. John Celebration, and to be recognized by the community in this way, is truly special. It reminds us why we started this journey in the first place: to tell our stories, celebrate our people, and showcase the best of the Caribbean."

"As a community we are proud of how TEMPO has championed for Caribbean culture over the last 20 years," said Commissioner Jennifer Matarangas-King. "As we prepare for St. John Celebration 2026, we are excited to collaborate on storytelling that captures the authenticity, energy, and community spirit that make our cultural celebrations so special."

Coverage will include event highlights, cultural features, interviews, performances, behind-the-scenes access, and original storytelling designed to showcase the unique character of St. John Celebration and the island itself across TEMPO's television, digital, and social media platforms.

The 2026 St. John Celebration takes place from June 14 through July 4, 2026. Spanning three weeks, the beloved annual festival brings the island's vibrant culture, local cuisine, and music to life while commemorating both Emancipation Day and Independence Day.
