

GatorPAC Endorses Catalina Lauf for U.S. House of Representatives, Florida's 19th Congressional District

GULFPORT, MS, UNITED STATES, June 8, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GatorPAC today announced its official endorsement of Catalina Lauf, a former political appointee in President Donald J. Trump's first administration, in her campaign for the Republican nomination for Florida's 19th Congressional District. Lauf demonstrates a clear, unwavering commitment to the conservative principles that define our organization.

Col Rob Maness, Chairman of GatorPAC Endorses Catalina Lauf in Florida's Congressional District 19

"Catalina Lauf is exactly the kind of principled, America First fighter we are proud to support," said GatorPAC Chairman retired Colonel Rob Maness. "She will prioritize safe streets, secure borders, and higher incomes for the hardworking families of Southwest Florida. She understands that government exists first and foremost to protect individual rights, not to expand its power over every day Americans."

Lauf stated her top priority clearly: "Delivering safe streets, secure borders, and higher incomes for the constituents of Florida's 19th Congressional District."

She brings real-world experience from the Trump Administration to the race.

"Catalina Lauf will be a strong voice for Florida's 19th District in Congress — a voice that puts American citizens first, respects the Constitution, and rejects the radical left's agenda," the endorsement continued.

GatorPAC urges all voters in Florida's 19th Congressional District to support Catalina Lauf in the August 18, 2026, Republican primary.

GatorPAC supports conservative candidates who demonstrate a steadfast commitment to individual liberty, fiscal responsibility, strong national defense, secure borders, and America First policies.
