

Blacks Network® Launches Wefunder Investment Campaign to Build a Global Media, Technology & Communications Ecosystem

Company Unveils Vision for Streaming Television, Digital News, Original Films, Global Distribution, Mobile Wireless Services, and Africa Expansion

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, June 8, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- — Blacks Network®, a digital streaming television and media company focused on Black culture, music, entertainment, and community empowerment, today further announced the official launching of its public investment campaign on Wefunder.

Our goal is not simply to build another streaming platform, we're building a global media, technology, and communications company that informs, entertains, connects & empowers communities worldwide.”

Godwin E. Enogieru

The Regulation Crowdfunding (Reg CF) offering gives investors and partners the opportunity to participate in the growth of a company that is evolving beyond traditional streaming media into a broader media, technology, and communications ecosystem.

With investments starting at just $250, the campaign is designed to allow supporters, viewers, creators, entrepreneurs, and investors to become part of the company's next phase of expansion.

A Vision Beyond Streaming.

Founded by Godwin E. Enogieru, Blacks Network® was established with the mission of creating a platform dedicated to Black voices, Black culture, and Black excellence. Today, the company operates a streaming television platform, mobile applications, digital media services, and a growing online community.

The company's long-term vision extends far beyond streaming television.

"Our goal is not simply to build another streaming platform," said Godwin E. Enogieru, Founder and CEO of Blacks Network®. "We are building a global media, technology, and communications company that informs, entertains, connects, and empowers communities worldwide. We believe the future belongs to companies that combine content, culture, technology, and connectivity into one ecosystem."

Professional News Operations

Blacks Network® intends to recruit experienced journalists, anchors, correspondents, producers, and media professionals to support original news programming and reporting.

Global Television Distribution

The company plans to expand distribution through cable, satellite, FAST channels, OTT platforms, and broadcast partnerships throughout the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Africa, and other international markets.

Original Film & Entertainment Production

Future plans include producing, acquiring, and distributing Afrocentric feature films, documentaries, television series, and original entertainment programming through Blacks Network Studios.

BNT Global Awards

The company also plans to establish the annual BNT Global Awards, recognizing excellence in music, film, television, entrepreneurship, technology, sports, and community leadership throughout the African American Diaspora.

BN Mobile Wireless

One of the company's most ambitious future initiatives is the planned development of Blacks Network® Mobile Wireless, a mobile communications service designed to provide affordable voice, messaging, data, streaming, and digital content services.

Initially envisioned as a Mobile Virtual Network Operator (MVNO), BN Mobile Wireless would leverage existing telecommunications infrastructure while integrating Blacks Network® content, news, entertainment, and digital services into a unified customer experience.

Africa Expansion Strategy

Blacks Network® also plans to expand throughout Africa through strategic partnerships, content distribution agreements, technology initiatives, and communications services targeting one of the world's fastest-growing digital populations.

Building a Multi-Revenue Platform

Management believes the future growth of Blacks Network® will be driven by multiple complementary revenue streams, including:

- Advertising Revenue.
- Streaming Television Services.
- Subscription Services..
- Original Content Licensing
- News Media Operations.
- Television Distribution Partnerships.
- Live Events and Awards Programs.
- Mobile Communications Services.
- Technology Products and Platforms.
- Strategic Partnerships and Sponsorships.

An Opportunity to Invest in Ownership

The Wefunder campaign provides supporters with an opportunity to invest in a company that seeks to combine media, technology, communications, and culture under one platform.

Investments begin at $250 through a Regulation Crowdfunding SAFE offering.

"Black culture continues to shape global entertainment, technology adoption, and consumer trends," Enogieru added. "We believe there is an opportunity to build a platform that not only celebrates culture but also creates ownership opportunities and economic value for the communities we serve."
