

Original Menu Celebrating Itachi Uchiha and Sasuke Uchiha at Nijigen no Mori's GRAND Chariot Hokuto Shichisei 135°

—Limited to the “NARUTO” Collaboration Room “Uchiha Brothers GRAND CHARIOT Collaboration Drink” Will Be Available from June 9—

AWAJI, JAPAN, June 8, 2026
/EINPresswire.com/ -- At GRAND CHARIOT Hokuto Shichisei 135, Nijigen no Mori's official luxury villa in Awajishima Anime Park, a limited-time collaboration menu will be offered exclusively to guests staying in the “NARUTO” collaboration rooms “Hokage's Villa” and “Akatsuki' Cocoon.” To celebrate the birthdays of Itachi Uchiha, who was born on June 9, and Sasuke Uchiha, who was born on July 23, the special collaboration drink menu “Uchiha Brothers Grand Chariot Collaboration Drink” will be available from Tuesday, June 9 to Monday, August 31, 2026.

This collaboration menu features two original drinks inspired by the two Uchiha brothers. The “□□ – Chidori –” drink, themed after Sasuke Uchiha, is a Ramune-based beverage with a cool, clear blue appearance that expresses Sasuke's solitary and reserved nature. By adding popping candy, the drink creates a sparkling sensation and sound that evokes the energy of his technique, resulting in a refreshingly vibrant drink inspired by Sasuke's Chidori.

The “□□ – Tsukuyomi –” drink, themed after Itachi Uchiha, layers black cassis syrup with white grape juice. When mixed, it transforms into a deep crimson color reminiscent of the Sharingan. While its appearance is rich and bold, the flavor is refreshingly light. This drink expresses the genjutsu Tsukuyomi, one of Itachi's signature dōjutsu.

In addition, guests who order either collaboration drink will receive an original coaster featuring the corresponding character.

This marks the first original menu created for the hugely popular “NARUTO” collaboration rooms. The story of Itachi and Sasuke is far too deep to be told in a single night, so to celebrate the birthdays of the two brothers, please enjoy a special evening at GRAND CHARIOT Hokuto Shichisei 135° at Nijigen no Mori.

□Hokage’s Villa□

This playful room is themed after the residence of the Hokage, who governs the Hidden Leaf Village (Konohagakure), to which Naruto Uzumaki belongs. The room is designed with unique themes for the living room, bedroom, bathroom, and toilet, offering a fun and imaginative stay. Guests can enjoy exclusive amenities found only here, including recreated scenes from the anime and photo spots placed throughout the room.

□“Akatsuki” Cocoon□

This room brings together members of the popular S-rank criminal organization Akatsuki from “NARUTO Shippuden”. The room is designed according to each character’s storyline, creating a special stay that makes guests feel as though they have become part of Akatsuki themselves. Highlights include Itachi Uchiha’s chair, the chair he sat on when welcoming his younger brother Sasuke, as well as Akatsuki-themed interior décor and exclusive original goods.

GRAND CHARIOT Hokuto Shichisei 135° is an official luxury villa of Awaji Island Anime Park Nijigen no Mori. This features 23 guest rooms designed to resemble a cocoon, and the sunrise and starry sky viewed from the over-5-meter-high skylights are truly spectacular.

Meals are supervised by a master chef Haruyuki Yamashita who operates 13 restaurants in Japan and overseas. Guests can enjoy cuisine made with ingredients from Awaji Island, a celebrated culinary region historically known as a provider of food to the Imperial Court as Miketsukuni.

□Dining

Under the supervision of Chef Haruyuki Yamashita, who serves as a Hyogo Prefecture “Food” advisor, guests can enjoy dishes made with selected ingredients from Awaji Island, a treasure trove of ingredients historically known as Miketsukuni.

Dinner

Enjoy a “New Japanese-style” course menu supervised by Chef Yamashita, who operates 13 restaurants including locations at Tokyo Midtown. Having been selected twice as a Master Chef at the World Gourmet Summit, Chef Yamashita expresses a modern style of Japanese cuisine that maximizes the life and essence of each ingredient.

Ingredients include Awaji Beef, of which only around 200 heads are raised annually; “reversed sea urchin” (uni from Yura, made possible by its outstanding freshness); Awaji Island onions and tomatoes; and sukiyaki dish featuring generous amounts of vegetables. Menu items may vary depending on the season.

Breakfast

Guests may choose one breakfast set per party from either the Japanese-style Breakfast set or the Western-style Plate.

Japanese-style: made with plenty of ingredients from Awaji Island

Enjoy the Gran Chariot “Morning Starter Set,” grilled fish from the Seto Inland Sea, and the specialty “Awaji Dashimaki Tamago (rolled omelet)” with freshly cooked Awaji Island rice.

Western-style: western food plate featuring ingredients from Awaji Island

This breakfast features four Awaji Island ingredients on the main plate, including homemade roast ham made from Awaji Island pork, scrambled eggs made with Awaji Island eggs, and homemade tomato ketchup made with plenty of local onions. The menu emphasizes selected ingredients and handmade preparation.

□Baths

All villas are equipped with hinoki bath, allowing guests to relax in the soothing natural fragrance of Japanese cypress.
