

ROYAL SAUDI GOLF FEDERATION AND Y. K. ALMOAYYED & SONS GROUP SIGN MOU FOR THE 2026 RIFFA, SAUDI ARABIA GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

The Royal Saudi Golf Federation (RSGF) and Y. K. Almoayyed & Sons Group have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for the 2026 Riffa, Saudi Arabia Golf Championship. The MOU outlines the terms of the partnership, including the tournament's format, prize pool, and the role of the RSGF as the governing body and Y. K. Almoayyed & Sons Group as the organizing and marketing partner.

RIFFA, SAUDI ARABIA, June 8, 2026

The MOU is a landmark agreement that marks a significant milestone in the development of professional golf in Saudi Arabia. It is expected to attract a large number of international players and spectators, contributing to the growth of the sport in the region. The tournament will be held in Riffa, Saudi Arabia, and will feature a prize pool of 6 million Saudi Riyals.

The RSGF is the governing body for golf in Saudi Arabia, and Y. K. Almoayyed & Sons Group is a leading sports and entertainment company in the Kingdom. The partnership is expected to create a world-class golfing experience for players and fans alike.

The MOU is a landmark agreement that marks a significant milestone in the development of professional golf in Saudi Arabia. It is expected to attract a large number of international players and spectators, contributing to the growth of the sport in the region. The tournament will be held in Riffa, Saudi Arabia, and will feature a prize pool of 6 million Saudi Riyals.

“

The MOU is a landmark agreement that marks a significant milestone in the development of professional golf in Saudi Arabia. It is expected to attract a large number of international players and spectators, contributing to the growth of the sport in the region. The tournament will be held in Riffa, Saudi Arabia, and will feature a prize pool of 6 million Saudi Riyals.

The MOU is a landmark agreement that marks a significant milestone in the development of professional golf in Saudi Arabia. It is expected to attract a large number of international players and spectators, contributing to the growth of the sport in the region. The tournament will be held in Riffa, Saudi Arabia, and will feature a prize pool of 6 million Saudi Riyals.

Mohammed Almoayyed – Chairman of Y. K. Almoayyed & Sons Group with James Brooks-Ward - Chairman of the Royal Bahrain Concours

The MOU is a landmark agreement that marks a significant milestone in the development of professional golf in Saudi Arabia. It is expected to attract a large number of international players and spectators, contributing to the growth of the sport in the region. The tournament will be held in Riffa, Saudi Arabia, and will feature a prize pool of 6 million Saudi Riyals.

The MOU is a landmark agreement that marks a significant milestone in the development of professional golf in Saudi Arabia. It is expected to attract a large number of international players and spectators, contributing to the growth of the sport in the region. The tournament will be held in Riffa, Saudi Arabia, and will feature a prize pool of 6 million Saudi Riyals.

The MOU is a landmark agreement that marks a significant milestone in the development of professional golf in Saudi Arabia. It is expected to attract a large number of international players and spectators, contributing to the growth of the sport in the region. The tournament will be held in Riffa, Saudi Arabia, and will feature a prize pool of 6 million Saudi Riyals.

