We have always believed that we aren't just in the car business—we are in the people business”

Steve Lindsay, Dealer Principal of Lindsay Honda for excellence in customer service and operations, the Elite designation is a much rarer achievement. It is reserved exclusively for the top 10 to 25 dealerships in the entire country that have already qualified for the President's Award while simultaneously achieving the highest new-vehicle sales volume.

By earning this award, Lindsay Honda has proven an extraordinary ability to provide an exceptional selection of vehicles to the Columbus community without ever sacrificing personalized, top-tier customer care.

said Steve Lindsay, Dealer Principal of Lindsay Honda. "Achieving the President's Award Elite is a direct reflection of our incredible team's hard work and the unwavering trust of our customers here in Central Ohio. Earning this national honor proves that 'The Lindsay Difference' is more than just a motto; it's a commitment to transparency, service, and treating every customer like family."

To qualify for the Elite tier, Lindsay Honda had to meet rigorous benchmarks across all dealership functions, maintaining exceptional Customer Service Experience (CSE) scores, exceptional service retention rates, and first-visit repair accuracy, all while operating as one of the highest-volume dealerships in the nation.

For over 50 years, Lindsay Honda has been a cornerstone of the Columbus community, built on the core values of faith, transparency, and service. Beyond the showroom and their state-of-the-art, 50-bay service center, the dealership remains dedicated to supporting local public safety initiatives, charities, and community events throughout Central Ohio.

Residents of Columbus and the surrounding areas are invited to experience this award-winning standard of excellence. To browse one of Ohio's largest selections of Honda vehicles or to schedule service with an elite team of technicians, please visit www.LindsayHonda.com or visit the showroom at 5959 Scarborough Blvd., Columbus, OH 43232.
