

Sue Tomat Reaches Amazon Best-Seller Status with 'Lead with Empathy' Book Co-Authored with Chris Voss

QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA, June 8, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- SuccessBooks® proudly celebrates the outstanding achievement of "Lead with Empathy" co-authored by Sue Tomat, alongside Chris Voss and distinguished professionals worldwide. Launched on June 4th, 2026, the book has achieved Amazon Best-Seller status, marking a significant milestone in its journey.

Central to the success of "Lead with Empathy" is Sue Tomat's chapter, "The Backing Vocalist's Revolution." Sue shares stories about how empathetic leadership in the workplace demands shifts in perspective and courage. It is wise self-interest, the clear-eyed view that our long-term success is inseparable from the success of the people around us. And it is good judgement, a quality that will only grow more valuable as AI takes over more of what we once considered thinking.

Sue Tomat - Best Selling Author

"Lead with Empathy" has achieved outstanding success on Amazon, earning Best Seller status across multiple business and leadership categories, including Communication & Skills, Marketing, Entrepreneurship, Marketing & Sales, and Direct Marketing.

The book also reached the coveted #1 New Release position in Direct Marketing and gained widespread recognition across Amazon's New Release lists, ranking among the top new releases in Entrepreneurship, Marketing, Communication Skills, Business Development & Entrepreneurship, Marketing & Sales, and Business & Money. These impressive rankings reflect the book's strong resonance with entrepreneurs, business professionals, and leaders seeking to elevate their impact through empathy-driven leadership.

Meet Sue Tomat:

Sue Tomat has spent over 25 years supporting professionals to refine their thinking so they can make better-informed choices about how best to communicate and collaborate to achieve their goals. This includes coaching them to thinking empathically, independently and realistically. Inspired by Galileo Galilei since childhood, she encourages people to be discerning and do what truly works, which often involves challenging conventional approaches. She sees discernment as survival skill in the age of AI.

As the founder of GumLeafGreen, Sue has built a global reputation for delivering coaching, training and consulting services that transform how people think, communicate and collaborate. Her expertise is sought after by clients in all sectors and a wide range of industries across the globe. She works with a diverse set of individuals, everyone from directors and CEOs of listed public companies to students seeking internships.

Sue's honours degree in law and over 10 years as a commercial lawyer in Australia laid some foundations for her expertise but also offered valuable insights into her own blind spots and how to improve. She finds joy in helping others excel and believes the greatest teachers are those who have lived the lesson, not just read or theorised about it.

Sue is also passionate about rewilding landscapes, including the land under her custodianship, to better support both wildlife and human communities. She enjoys spending time in wild landscapes with loved ones, including her whippet, to boost creativity, clarity and resilience.
