

An Entire Island Just Immortalised a Supercar Rally on Official Government Stamps

The Isle of Man has launched an official stamp collection celebrating Petrolheadonism's Supercar Island event, featuring Valentino Balboni.

UNITED KINGDOM, June 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a move that few automotive events can claim, Petrolheadonism's Supercar Island has been immortalised through an official Isle of Man stamp collection, transforming one of the world's most spectacular driving experiences into a series of government-issued collectibles.

Created by Isle of Man Stamps & Coins in partnership with Petrolheadonism, the six-stamp collection celebrates the 2025 edition of Supercar Island, an exclusive automotive adventure that brings some of the world's most desirable supercars to one of the most legendary driving destinations on the planet.

Set against the Isle of Man's dramatic coastal roads, mountain climbs and iconic motorsport landmarks, the collection captures the unique atmosphere that has made Supercar Island a bucket-list experience for enthusiasts worldwide.

The collaboration represents a remarkable milestone for the automotive community. While governments have long celebrated historic events, national figures and motorsport legends through stamps, it is exceptionally rare for a contemporary enthusiast event to receive official recognition in this way.

The official First Day Cover from the Petrolheadonism Supercar Island stamp issue brings together all six stamps in a limited-edition collectible celebrating the Isle of Man's motoring heritage.

For Petrolheadonism Founder and CEO Ciro Ciampi, the collection reflects the special relationship between the event, its participants and the Island itself.

"Supercar Island is about much more than the cars. It's about bringing together people who share a passion for driving and experiencing some of the finest roads anywhere in the world. The Isle of Man has an automotive culture unlike anywhere else, shaped by more than a century of motorsport history. To see our community recognised through an official stamp collection is a genuine honour and a milestone for everyone involved."

The Isle of Man's reputation as a motoring destination needs little introduction. Home to the world-famous TT Mountain Course and renowned globally for its rich motorsport heritage, the Island has become synonymous with engineering excellence, speed and driving passion.

“

Seeing Supercar Island celebrated on official Isle of Man stamps is a milestone for our community and a tribute to the Island's incredible motoring culture."

Ciro Ciampi, Founder & CEO

Valentino Balboni's iconic Lamborghini Gallardo LP550-2 captured on an official Isle of Man Supercar Island stamp.

Maxine Cannon, General Manager of Isle of Man Stamps & Coins, said: "The Isle of Man has long held a special place in the hearts of enthusiasts across the world. With Supercar Island, we wanted to create a stamp collection that captures both the thrill of these incredible cars alongside the extraordinary landscapes that make our Island such a compelling destination. Working with Petrolheadonism has enabled us to celebrate a new community of enthusiasts while honouring the Isle of Man's motorsport legacy."

Adding further exclusivity to the release is the Valentino Balboni Signature Collection, created as the ultimate collector's edition. Limited to just 150 examples worldwide, the set includes a hand-signed First Day Cover personally autographed by Valentino Balboni, the legendary Lamborghini test driver whose four-decade career helped shape some of the most iconic supercars ever produced.

Each collector's set is presented in a premium presentation folder and includes a numbered certificate of authenticity alongside a sheet of stamps featuring Balboni's own Lamborghini Gallardo LP550-2 Valentino Balboni Edition, a model created by Lamborghini in recognition of his extraordinary contribution to the marque.

The Petrolheadonism Supercar Island stamp collection launches on 24 June 2026 and will be available through Isle of Man Stamps & Coins. Products include the full stamp set, First Day Cover, Presentation Pack and the limited-edition Valentino Balboni Signature Collection.

For enthusiasts, collectors and automotive fans alike, the release represents the official recognition that one of the world's most exciting modern driving events has become part of the Isle of Man's continuing motorsport story.
