With more than 30 years of courtroom experience and over 140 jury trials, Michael Colbach has built a reputation for individualized client service and results.

An attorney can buy their way into legal associations and law magazines, but the only way to get good trial verdicts is through skill and hard work.”

The Law Office of Michael A. Colbach Attorney at Law PC has been selected to the Oregon Super Lawyers list for the fifteenth consecutive year, having first received this distinction in 2012. This continued recognition reflects his sustained commitment to excellence in personal injury law and the high regard in which he is held by both clients and peers.

Since founding his personal injury practice, Michael A. Colbach Attorney at Law PC has consistently secured significant recoveries across a wide range of case types. His practice includes complex truck and motorcycle accident litigation, as well as bicycle and pedestrian motor vehicle injury cases. Among his recent results is a $4.1 million jury verdict in Marion County, Oregon, on behalf of an injured cyclist in a case against the State of Oregon, acting through its Department of Transportation (ODOT) (Case No. 21CV47580), an outcome that underscores Mr. Colbach's willingness to aggressively pursue justice when insurers and government entities refuse to act.

Mr. Colbach further distinguishes his practice through a client-focused fee structure designed to maximize client recovery. His approach is intended to increase the net amount his clients ultimately retain. "It is important when you are choosing your own attorney to understand the specifics of the lawyer fee agreement and how the lawyer fee is calculated because that directly impacts how much money you will actually recover."

Colbach advises individuals seeking representation also ask the below direct questions before hiring their own personal injury attorney:

What percentage of your practice is personal injury?

How many years have you practiced personal injury law?

How many cases have you filed, and how many have gone to trial?

When was your last jury trial, and what was the verdict?

Do your fees increase for filing a lawsuit or going to mediation?

Do you charge for recovering medical expenses?
