

Lesley Logan's 300-Person Camp EDC Pilates Session Reflects Growing Demand for Wellness and Movement Programming

On Friday, May 15, Pilates authority Lesley Logan led a one-hour class for approximately 300 participants under the Sol tent at Camp EDC 2026

LAS VEGAS , NV, UNITED STATES, June 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday, May 15, Pilates authority Lesley Logan led a one-hour class for approximately 300 participants under the Sol tent at Camp EDC 2026. Logan trained under master teacher Jay Grimes in the direct lineage of Joseph Pilates, co-founded OnlinePilatesClasses.com, and teaches internationally — with upcoming workshops in China and India.

Many participants were experiencing Pilates for the first time. Logan led the group through a classical sequence including "The Hundred" — true to her "Pilates for every body" approach, accessible to beginners while preserving the discipline's classical structure — with overhead misters cooling the crowd against the midday desert heat.

Demonstrating her meticulous attention to the overall attendee experience, Logan provided handmade beaded bracelets to participants. The event concluded with a massive group photograph of the 300-plus participants, showcasing the sheer scale and community connection generated during the hour.

"Three hundred people, most of them new to Pilates, moving together in the heat — that's a good day," said Logan. "As we say, 'the work' travels. It belongs in rooms of every size."

Camp EDC came right on the heels of a three-week European educational tour where Logan led advanced masterclasses and workshops at three sold-out events. Her upcoming domestic summer tour has sold-out dates across the United States. Logan is currently booking corporate and high-capacity wellness conference dates through 2027.
