

FICK & MARX LLP NAMED A TOP WHITE-COLLAR CRIMINAL DEFENSE FIRM BY CHAMBERS USA

For the Third Year, Fick & Marx Ranked Among Leading Firms in Massachusetts

BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, June 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The latest edition of Chambers USA recognized Fick & Marx LLP and both of the firm's founding partners, William Fick and Daniel Marx, in its compilation of top white-collar criminal defense counsel in Massachusetts.

This marks the third year that Fick & Marx has been honored by Chambers, a leading independent legal research company. Chambers applies an in-depth methodology to compile its annual rankings; it includes detailed interviews and research into attorneys' capabilities, achievements and market presence.

Despite its boutique scale, the four-person law firm is ranked alongside some of the nation's largest law firms. For Band 1 and Band 2 in the white-collar category, the Chambers-recognized firms average more than 1,000 attorneys; Fick & Marx both competes against and collaborates with many of the most prominent law firms of the AmLaw 100.

Among the verbatim comments shared with Chambers by clients and other law firms:

"Fick & Marx has a very sophisticated approach with a commitment to winning. The team's advocacy and strategy are excellent and they are thoughtful about everything they do."

"Fick & Marx did really tremendous legal work. It has incredibly skilled lawyers with terrific insights. They have the sophistication to navigate very complex federal criminal matters."

"The Fick & Marx team has excellent judgment and strategic thinking. The attorneys' writing is highly persuasive and advocacy is engaging."

"They are true defense lawyers with charismatic, hard-hitting and well thought-out advocacy. They are interested in the best results for the client."

"The firm is thoughtful, strategic and brilliant. For a client in a high stakes matter that needs
