GREENWICH, CT, UNITED STATES, June 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Two Powerhouse Husband-and-Wife Luxury Teams Unite to Connect U.S. and International Buyers to Israel's Booming Real Estate Market

The Luxe Latitudes Team of Compass and Montefiore Real Estate Group, Israel's leading boutique luxury agency, today announced a strategic partnership under the banner of The Global Bridge to Israel—a groundbreaking initiative connecting global real estate professionals, investors, and luxury buyers to opportunities in Israel's rapidly expanding property market. Through the website <https://luxelatitudes.com/bridge-to-israel/>, you can access info on the different towns and markets in Israel, the process of investing in Israel and see a variety of listings.

The partnership unites two of the most distinctive husband-and-wife teams in international luxury real estate: Hyleri and Marc Katzenberg of Luxe Latitudes, ranked on the Real Trends Top Realtors list and operating across Fairfield County, CT, Southeast Florida, and the Caribbean; and Roie and Rebecca Kaner of Montefiore Real Estate Group, whose firm has become the definitive name in Israeli luxury real estate, with Roie recognized by the Israeli real estate industry and media Times of Israel and YNET as one of the country's foremost experts in luxury property marketing and sales.

“When we met Roie and Rebecca, the alignment was immediate—two couples, two luxury brands, two sides of the world, and a shared belief that real estate can be a bridge between communities and cultures,” said Hyleri Katzenberg, Team Leader of Luxe Latitudes. “The Global Bridge to Israel isn’t just a business partnership. It’s a mission to connect our clients—and the broader diaspora—to meaningful ownership opportunities in Israel.”

“Luxe Latitudes shares our values and our approach: personal service, global vision, and a commitment to excellence that goes beyond the transaction,” said Roie Kaner, Founder and CEO of Montefiore Real Estate Group. “Together, we’re creating a seamless pathway for American and international buyers to access Israel’s luxury market with confidence and trust.”

A Market at an Inflection Point

Israel’s luxury real estate market is experiencing a significant surge, driven by tech-sector wealth creation, accelerating diaspora investment, and growing international buyer interest. From Tel Aviv’s coastal high-rises and Herzliya Pituach’s exclusive waterfront communities to Jerusalem’s historic neighborhoods and emerging luxury corridors, demand for premium Israeli property is outpacing supply—creating compelling opportunities for both lifestyle buyers and strategic investors.

Two Couples, One Vision

The partnership’s unique structure—two husband-and-wife teams collaborating across continents—reflects the personal, relationship-driven approach both firms are known for. Hyleri Katzenberg, a second-generation realtor and dedicated philanthropist who founded the Belle Foundation for children with vascular deformities, brings a deep personal connection to Israel

Rebecca Kaner, born and raised in the US and today acting as Montefiore's Director of Operations, has led the firm's global partnerships and international client strategy since its inception, making her the natural counterpart to Luxe Latitudes' expansion into Israel.

Marc Katzenberg, a distinguished entrepreneur who founded the Florida restaurant chain TooJay's, and Roie Kaner, a former attorney at Israel's top law firms turned luxury real estate visionary, bring complementary business acumen and deal-making expertise that strengthens the partnership's foundation.
