Consumers deserve more than marketing claims when choosing a real estate professional.”

For consumers navigating one of life's largest financial decisions, the rankings offer something increasingly important in real estate: an objective measure of experience and performance based on verified transaction data rather than advertising, online popularity, or self-reported success.

“Consumers deserve more than marketing claims when choosing a real estate professional,” said Nancy Fennell, CEO and Owner of Dickson Realty. “These rankings provide an independent measure of experience and performance, helping buyers and sellers identify agents with a proven track record of guiding clients through complex transactions. We're incredibly proud of the agents and teams whose dedication earned this recognition."

The RealTrends Verified rankings recognize top-performing real estate professionals across the United States who meet specific production thresholds and submit sales data for verification. The rankings are not based on nominations, votes, or paid placement.

In Reno, more than four out of every 10 RealTrends-ranked agents are affiliated with Dickson Realty. In Sparks, more than half of all ranked agents work with Dickson Realty. For buyers and sellers, that concentration of ranked professionals means access to agents with recent, verified experience helping clients price, negotiate, buy, and sell across a wide range of local market conditions.

"Every transaction represents a client trusting someone with one of the most significant financial decisions of their life," said Beau Keenan, President and Owner of Dickson Realty. "These rankings reflect the depth of experience our agents bring to the table and the real-world knowledge that comes from helping thousands of buyers and sellers navigate changing market conditions across Northern Nevada, Lake Tahoe, and Truckee."

The rankings also highlight Dickson Realty's strength among real estate teams. All 13 of Dickson's RealTrends-ranked teams fall within the small-team category, averaging just 2.5 agents per team compared to the national ranked-team average of 6.8 agents. Despite their smaller size, Dickson's ranked teams produce more volume per team member than the national average.

For clients, that small-team model can offer the benefits of collaboration without sacrificing

The 2026 RealTrends Verified rankings reinforce Dickson Realty’s position as a trusted resource for buyers and sellers throughout Northern Nevada, Lake Tahoe, and Truckee. While rankings alone do not capture everything that goes into a successful real estate experience, they provide consumers with a meaningful benchmark for evaluating an agent’s proven market experience.
