The First Complete Guide to OZ 2.0

With the passage of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act, Opportunity Zones have been made a permanent feature of the US tax code and substantially updated. OZ 2.0 introduces redrawn eligibility maps, new rural incentives, expanded investment categories, and a reformed compliance framework. The Opportunity Zones Playbook is the first book written comprehensively for this new era. Written for investors with capital gains, fund sponsors and developers, and financial advisors, CPAs, and attorneys, it is the most thorough and up-to-date guide to the OZ program ever published.

Foreword by US Senator Tim Scott

US Senator Tim Scott (R-SC), Chairman of the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs and original cosponsor of the OZ legislation, wrote the foreword to The Opportunity Zones Playbook. Senator Scott writes: “This book tells the story of how Opportunity Zones work and why they matter. At its core, it reflects a larger mission: expanding access to the American Dream.”

To write the book, Atkinson conducted original interviews with US Senator Tim Scott (R-SC); US Representative Mike Kelly (R-PA-16), Chairman of the Ways & Means Subcommittee on Tax; US Representative Jason Smith (R-MO), Chairman of the Ways & Means Committee; Michael Novogradac, Managing Partner at Novogradac & Company LLP; Jonathan Tower, Founder & CEO of Arctaris Impact Investors; and other policymakers and practitioners.

Catherine Lyons, Director of Policy at the Economic Innovation Group (EIG), calls the book “a seminal guide for anyone looking to invest in OZs, advise their clients, or sponsor an OZ project.” Michael Episcopo, Co-CEO of Origin Investments, says “Jimmy remains the most trusted voice in the industry.”

The book has also received endorsements from Jason Watkins (Novogradac & Company), Blake Christian, Andrew Doup, Erik Hayden, Jill Homan, Emily Lavery, Brad Molotsky, Coni Rathbone, Gerald Reihsen, Louis Rogers, Ashley Tison, and many others in the OZ community.
