FROM A LIVE BROADCAST SEGMENT TO 82 WEEKS OF PROPHECIES

QUEEN OF THE WORLD began as a segment featuring absurd prophecies that opened a half-hour Sunny Side live broadcast hosted by Allard in 2023. The concept evolved into the current one-minute comedy series, which now releases new episodes Monday through Friday. After 82 weeks, the series has produced 410 one-minute episodes.

Each episode opens with Worried Man, played by Sheldon Norberg, voicing a concern to the Queen of the World, played by Susie Schoonmaker. The Queen responds with mysterious prophecies loosely connected to the concern — “think the Oracle at Delphi, but with better pacing,” laughs Allard.

The series features original music by J Raoul Brody and is edited using Apple Final Cut Pro to create what Sunny Side calls “a stimulating one-minute visual experience.”

A GROWING AUDIENCE FOR WHIMSY

While QUEEN OF THE WORLD is available on YouTube and TikTok (@SunnySideComedyFun), the series has built its most engaged audience on Instagram (@SunnySideComedyFun).

“The success of this series makes sense because the world has gotten way too serious and troubling,” said Allard. “Whimsy is the quality of being playful, fanciful, or unpredictably imaginative. That’s exactly what people need to deal with the constant stream of stressful news. This is whimsical comedy for people in need of whimsy.”

Allard added, “It’s also poetry, which is another thing the world needs more of. And it’s comedy medicine — a good laugh can be a powerful antidote to life’s pain.”

RAISING AWARENESS FOR SIX COMEDY SERIES

More than a milestone for one series, the live broadcasts will introduce viewers to the growing Sunny Side Comedy Fun lineup.

The six-series lineup includes QUEEN OF THE WORLD and five additional ongoing comedy series:

QUEEN OF THE WORLD episodes released Monday through Friday on Sunny Side Comedy Fun YouTube, and TikTok & INSTAGRAM@SunnySideComedyFun.
