

Rachel Fiset Named to Daily Journal's Top Women Lawyers

RFZ Law is pleased to announce that managing partner Rachel Fiset has been named to the Daily Journal's Top Women Lawyers list for the fourth consecutive year.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- RFZ Law LLP is pleased to announce that managing partner Rachel Fiset has been named to the Daily Journal's Top Women Lawyers list for the fourth consecutive year.

We are thrilled to see Rachel recognized again among California's leading women lawyers... Rachel has built a career on handling difficult matters with precision, creativity, and calm under pressure.”

Ronnie Roy, Partner

The Daily Journal's annual Top Women Lawyers list recognizes 100 of California's leading women attorneys and highlights lawyers whose work reflects exceptional skill, leadership, and impact across the legal profession. The recognition is particularly meaningful because it is awarded by one of California's most respected legal publications and reflects sustained excellence in high-stakes matters, client advocacy, and professional leadership.

“We are thrilled to see Rachel recognized again among California's leading women lawyers,” said RFZ partner Ronnie Roy. “This honor reflects not only her outstanding judgment and advocacy, but also the breadth and evolution of her practice. Rachel has built a career on handling difficult matters with precision, creativity, and calm under pressure.”

Fiset, a co-founder of RFZ Law, is well known for her excellent work in white collar defense, government investigations, and complex litigation. She regularly represents clients in matters involving the SEC, U.S. Attorney's Office, District Attorney's Office, and other enforcement agencies.

Over the past year, Fiset has expanded the scope of her practice, demonstrating the versatility and nimbleness that have become hallmarks of her work. In addition to continuing her defense-side practice, she has increasingly represented plaintiffs in complex injury and business litigation and whistleblowers in various contexts, including qui tam cases.

That expansion reflects both Fiset's strategic range and RFZ Law's broader ability to move fluidly between defense, plaintiff-side, and investigative work. Her recent matters underscore a rare combination of skills: the ability to navigate government-facing investigations, litigate complex civil disputes, counsel individuals and companies under intense scrutiny, and advocate for whistleblowers and relators seeking to expose misconduct.

Fiset's fourth consecutive selection to the Daily Journal's Top Women Lawyers list follows a year of significant professional momentum for both Fiset and RFZ Law, including the firm's continued growth into corporate advisory and M & A work and the expansion of its complex litigation and investigations platform.

"I am honored to be recognized by the Daily Journal alongside so many accomplished women lawyers across California," said Fiset. "This recognition is especially meaningful because our practice continues to evolve in ways that allow us to serve clients across a broader range of complex, high-stakes matters. I am grateful to our clients for their trust and to my colleagues at RFZ Law for their extraordinary work and commitment."
