A high-jewelry writing instrument and pendant created for collectors who understand luxury as meaning made permanent.

Anita Mai Tan Creations announces the introduction of The Silver Road of Love, a high-jewelry masterpiece valued at approximately US$1.3 million, conceived as a ceremonial object of devotion, memory, and legacy.

A portion of the proceeds will be allocated to projects supporting youth from low-income families, continuing Anita Mai Tan’s belief that exceptional beauty should also carry human purpose.

Inspired by the ancient Silk Road — the passage through which cultures, treasures, and stories travelled across continents — The Silver Road of Love transforms distance into devotion. The creation unites a jeweled writing instrument and pendant: the pen as messenger, the pendant as destination, and the object as a private story written in gold, diamonds, and personal meaning.

The masterpiece features approximately 5,000 diamonds totaling approximately 42 carats, set in 18K rose gold with an estimated gold weight of 420 grams. Measuring approximately 17 cm in length and 22 mm in diameter, the piece required an estimated 22 to 24 months of development.

"The Silver Road of Love was created for those who understand that true luxury is not only seen — it is felt, remembered, and passed on," said Anita Mai Tan, founder and lead creative of Anita Mai Tan Creations and AlGems. "This creation is about love as a journey, memory as a treasure, and legacy as something we create with intention."

Introducing Anita Mai Tan

Anita Mai Tan is a Canadian jewelry designer, gemologist, founder of AlGems, and the creative force behind Anita Mai Tan Creations. Her work occupies a rare place in the world of high jewelry: where craftsmanship, cultural symbolism, personal storytelling, and philanthropy converge.

Anita does not create jewelry merely as adornment. She creates emotional objects — pieces that preserve memory, express identity, and carry meaning across generations. Her design language draws from poetry, nature, mythology, numerology, Asian cultural aesthetics, European craftsmanship, and the intimate stories of her clients.

Her creations are known for transforming exceptional materials into symbolic works of art. Diamonds become memories. Gold becomes permanence. A jewel becomes a vessel for family history, personal milestones, and spiritual meaning.

Across one-of-a-kind jewelry, jeweled writing instruments, sculptural masterpieces, and philanthropic works, Anita Mai Tan has developed a distinctive voice in the global luxury landscape. Her philosophy begins with listening: to a client's story, heritage, aspirations, and emotional universe. From there, she translates personal meaning into precious material form.

Through Anita Mai Tan Creations, she continues to redefine high jewelry as a language of legacy, cultural expression, and human connection.
