will be on hand to offer attendees the unique opportunity to examine, buy, sell, or trade casino memorabilia. And for the low price of admission, $10 Thursday, $5 Friday, FREE Saturday (not to mention free parking and no traffic hassles), it's a huge entertainment value. The event is open to the public and includes a multitude of fascinating displays and activities.

Aisle After Aisle of Casino Memorabilia Galore.

Many are symbols of past gaming grandeur that are gone or becoming rare; souvenirs from when the casinos wanted customers to pocket their branded keepsakes as reminders of a memorable experience. Things like gaming chips of all denominations, gaming tokens, dice, slot cards, playing cards, matchbooks, ashtrays, menus, dinnerware, swizzle sticks, casino photos, post cards, signs, table felt – just about anything a casino could put its name on.

Four Free Casino History-Related Seminars.

As part of the Casino Collectibles Association's objective to foster the preservation and education of gaming and casino history, the club offers four free educational seminars that run concurrently with the show. The following seminars are presented across the hall from the expo show in the Joshua Room of the South Point Hotel and Casino.

1) The Legacy of Collecting and the Importance of the Neon Museum Sign Collection.

Aaron Berger is Executive Director and CEO of The Neon Museum, home to the iconic signage that helped define Las Vegas' glittering image as the gambling mecca of the world. Berger will call on his 20-plus years of museum leadership to talk about the legacy of collecting and the importance of The Neon Museum's iconic signage to the history of Las Vegas. Thursday, June 18 at 8 am.

2) The Signs of Change for Tomorrow's Casino Industry.

Scott Roeben, founder of Vital Vegas and digital media pro, delves into how the casino experience is changing, why, and what to expect in the future as the business model of the casino industry marches toward electronic gaming. June 18 at 3pm.

3) The ChipGuide: World's Largest Catalog of Casino Chips and Collectibles.

Charles Kaplan is the Chairman of the Casino Collectibles Association's Museum of Gaming History and the administrator of the ChipGuide. The ChipGuide is the world's largest catalog of casino chips and collectibles, currently featuring over 324,000 collectible items from 32,000 casinos worldwide. Kaplan will explain and demonstrate the many new features added to the ChipGuide in the past year and unveil a brand-new feature. Friday, June 29 at 8 am.

4) How the Red-Light District was a Sign of the Times in Old Las Vegas.

Jami Rodman, author of The Las Vegas Madam and proprietor of the Las Vegas Guided Tours, an award-winning boutique company known for immersive, research-driven tours that bring to life the story of Block 16—the Red-Light District. Rodman will share the titillating history of early
