

NRS and Renascent Media Announce Return of the Retailers Networking Meetup Following Last Year's Massive Success

NRS, in partnership with Renascent Media, announces the return of the Retailers Networking Meetup on Wednesday, June 24th, at Albert Palace in Fords, NJ.

NEWAR, NJ, UNITED STATES, June 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- National Retail Solutions (NRS), in partnership with Renascent Media, is thrilled to announce the return of the Retailers Networking Meetup on Wednesday, June 24th, at Albert Palace in Fords, NJ.

Following the overwhelming success of last year's inaugural event—which drew hundreds of independent business owners—this exclusive gathering continues its mission to bring together retailers for an evening of connection, learning, and growth.

Attendees will enjoy an engaging evening featuring a relaxed networking hour with free cocktails, followed by special industry presentations, and a complimentary dinner.

"At NRS, we believe that when our retailers succeed, we all succeed," said Elie Y. Katz, President and CEO of NRS. "This event represents our ongoing commitment to supporting the vibrant independent retail community with the technology solutions and networking opportunities they need to connect, grow, and thrive in today's competitive landscape."

"Great businesses are built through relationships. The Retailers Networking Meetup creates a space where retailers, brands, and entrepreneurs can connect, collaborate, and grow together while shaping the future of multicultural commerce," said Tanvi Prenita Chandra, Founder & President of Renascent Media. "We are proud to provide a platform that fosters meaningful partnerships and new opportunities for business growth."
