

D&G Construction's Denver Kitchen Remodel Centers on a Wall-to-Wall Quartzite Slab and Waterfall Island

D&G Construction builds a finished custom kitchen inside a Denver home framed out for full-home expansion

LAFAYETTE, CO, UNITED STATES, June 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- D&G Construction, a design-build firm serving Denver and Boulder County, Colorado. has completed a custom kitchen remodel in Denver, a project carried out while the surrounding rooms were gutted and framed for a full-home expansion.

The design centers on a quartzite slab backsplash that runs wall to wall, paired with custom walnut-stained cabinetry, a large waterfall island, and an induction cooktop set flush into the surface. The result is a statement kitchen built to carry the home for decades, planned and specified in full before demolition began.

A dramatic kitchen transformation in a historic Denver home

Every finish, every trade, every sequence was resolved before demolition started. The client approved every detail before a single wall came down.”

Gina Palombo-Dinkel, Co-Founder.

The appliance package includes Bosch double ovens, a built-in dishwasher, and a French door refrigerator flanked by full-height cabinet towers. Floating wood shelves, black-framed windows, and geometric pendant lighting give the space a warm, modern character designed to read as intentional once the rest of the home is complete.

Completed in 2021 over a 10-week build with a project investment of $220,000, the kitchen was delivered by a single accountable team. As a design-build firm, D&G

Construction handled design, permitting, and construction in-house, coordinating every trade and sequencing the kitchen against the larger expansion so the homeowners had one point of contact from the first planning conversation through the final walkthrough.
