

Russian River Railbikes Offers Unique Father's Day Weekend Experience in Sonoma County

Scenic four-seat railbike adventures provide the perfect Father's Day outing for families seeking outdoor fun and lasting memories.

CLOVERDALE, CA, UNITED STATES, June 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Russian River Railbikes is inviting families to celebrate Father's Day Weekend with a unique outdoor adventure to the scenic Russian River. Families can create lasting memories while pedaling aboard the attraction's popular four-seat railbikes through one of Sonoma County's most beautiful landscapes.

Operating on historic railroad tracks, Russian River Railbikes offers a one-of-a-kind experience that combines history, recreation, and breathtaking views of the Russian River corridor. The family-friendly excursions provide an opportunity for dads, grandfathers, and loved ones to spend quality time together while enjoying the natural beauty of Sonoma County.

"Father's Day is about creating meaningful memories with the people who matter most," said Manly Hyde a spokesperson for Russian River Railbikes. "Our railbike adventures offer families a fun and memorable way to celebrate together while exploring the beauty and history of the Russian River region."

Each four-seat railbike accommodates up to four riders, making it an ideal activity for families seeking a memorable Father's Day outing. Riders can enjoy scenic river views, wildlife sightings,
