Schnelle was introduced to the diverse group of attendees by State Senator Bobby Powell. Formerly elected Public Defender Carey Haughwout, who worked closely with Schnelle Tonge during her time as head of the Public Defender’s office, offered closing remarks.

Schnelle Tonge has spent nearly two decades serving Palm Beach County as an Assistant Public Defender in the 15th Judicial Circuit, handling thousands of cases across County, Juvenile, and Circuit Court.

She currently serves as Chief of the Client Services and Felony Mental Health Division, overseeing complex cases involving competency, rehabilitation, and mental health while leading teams that connect individuals and families with critical community resources.

Known for her professionalism, preparation, and fairness, Schnelle has been recommended nine times by the Judicial Nominating Commission for judicial appointment. Beyond the courtroom, she remains deeply committed to mentorship and community service through local schools, nonprofit organizations, and bar associations throughout Palm Beach County.

Schnelle Tonge is running for Palm Beach County Court Judge, Group 12, to continue serving the community with integrity, compassion, and sound judgment.
