FL, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- DM Records is proud to announce that "America, Happy Birthday!", the new patriotic single performed by Lindsay Selbach, has reached Top 5 on the iTunes Holiday Singles Chart.

Positioned as a fresh July 4th anthem, "America, Happy Birthday!" celebrates America's birthday, the Fourth of July season, and the pride, gratitude, and unity that come with honoring the nation. The song introduces Lindsay Selbach, a South Florida singer with a heartfelt voice and a natural ability to connect with listeners.

America, Happy Birthday! as performed by Lindsay Selbach

Lindsay was discovered by independent label DM Records while singing in a local church praise band. Her sincerity, vocal strength, and authentic performance style immediately stood out to the label, leading to the release of "America, Happy Birthday!" this week.

The single's early success began with a grassroots effort. Lindsay encouraged her local friends and family to share the song across their social media accounts. That support quickly spread, helping the single gain momentum and climb onto the iTunes Holiday Singles Chart, where it reached Top 5.

"This is exactly the kind of story independent music is built on," said David Watson, co-founder of DM Records. "A talented young singer, a patriotic song with heart, and a community of people willing to support and share it. We are thrilled to see Lindsay's debut connect so quickly with listeners" states Mark Watson, co-founder of DM Records.

"America, Happy Birthday!" is available now on iTunes, Apple Music, Spotify, and other major digital platforms.
