As a member of the Council, Sanjay has access to a variety of exclusive opportunities designed to help him reach peak professional influence. He will connect and collaborate with other respected leaders in a private forum. Sanjay will also have the opportunity to share his expert insights in original articles and contribute to published Expert Panels alongside other experts on Forbes.com.

Finally, Sanjay will benefit from exclusive access to membership-branded marketing collateral, high-touch support from the Forbes Councils member concierge team, and complimentary membership in EXEC—the luxury hotel, travel, lifestyle, and business benefits program.

"I'm honored to join the Forbes Technology Council at a time when manufacturing is entering one of the most consequential periods of change in its history," said Sanjay Brahmawar, CEO at QAD | Redzone. "The convergence of AI, connected workforces, and adaptive operations is fundamentally reshaping how manufacturers create value, compete, and grow. The companies that will lead the next decade will not be those with the biggest systems, but those that can learn faster, decide faster, and execute faster than their competitors. We have a unique opportunity to move beyond systems of record to systems of action, where AI helps manufacturers sense, decide, and act in real time. I look forward to contributing to this important dialogue and learning from fellow technology leaders who are helping shape the future of our industries."
