

Techmango Technology Services Rebrands as SMI TECHSOLUTIONS PRIVATE LIMITED, Product and Services Under One Identity

Transformation reflects the company's evolution into an AI-first organization, unifying enterprise software and technology services under one brand.

MADURAI, TAMIL NADU, INDIA, June 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Techmango Technology Services Private Limited today announced its rebranding as SMI TECHSOLUTIONS reflects our vision of combining innovative software products and implementation expertise to help businesses achieve better outcomes through AI and intelligent automation.”

Director of Business Development, SMI TECHSOLUTIONS

The new identity reflects the company's expanded vision of helping enterprises accelerate digital transformation through a combination of enterprise software platforms, AI-powered automation, data-driven solutions, and technology services.

Over the years, Techmango has established itself as a trusted technology partner for organizations across

Manufacturing, BFSI, Healthcare, Retail, Logistics, and Supply Chain sectors. The company has delivered solutions spanning application development, modernization, cloud technologies, data engineering, business intelligence, and emerging AI capabilities through global delivery operations across India, the United States, and the UAE.

As SMI TECHSOLUTIONS, the company now brings together its technology services expertise and its enterprise automation product portfolio under a single strategic brand.

At the centre of this vision is SMI TECHSOLUTIONS, SMI TECHSOLUTIONS' intelligent process orchestration platform, designed to help enterprises automate and optimize complex business operations through Agentic AI, Intelligent Document Processing, Business Process Management, Robotic Process Automation, and workflow orchestration technologies.

The combination of Aptimeta and SMI TECHSOLUTIONS' delivery expertise enables customers to engage a single organization capable of consulting, implementing, automating, and continuously improving enterprise processes at scale.
