"We believe that finding your next home should be simple and stress-free," said Mr. Varun Singh, Marketing Manager at Forthright Properties. "The Boardwalk reflects our commitment to providing modern, value-added housing with the kind of responsive, people-first service that our residents have come to expect."

Forthright Properties manages over 1,500 rental apartments across Manitoba, serving residents in cities and towns including Winnipeg, Headingley, West St. Paul, Oakbank, Selkirk, Ile Des Chenes, Lorette, Niverville, Saint Adolphe, Steinbach, and Blumenort. The company's team includes resident relations managers, leasing professionals, maintenance personnel, and customer support staff — all available through a 24-hour help service.

Resident experiences speak to the level of service provided. Rhythmmaya, a resident, shared: "We had an unexpected heat issue at 8PM on a holiday. We called the emergency maintenance line and within the hour heard back from them and had them at our door step to fix the issue. That type of service is unheard of for rentals! Such a positive experience and am so impressed with Forthright for how professional they are. Also shout out to Matt for being the best!"

Rebekah B., another resident, stated: "Forthright has been nothing but amazing for and to us! When we signed our original lease agreement it was for a 1 bedroom. they then let us change it to a 2 bedroom when we changed our minds. THEN we wanted to have a unit facing the field rather than the parking lot and they amended our agreement again for us. They've always been quick to respond to any concerns and have always accommodated us! Very pleased with the polite service and help of all the staff."

Caralee B., a long-term resident, added: "I have been a tenant with forthright for a number of years now. When I first started to look to rent I did not know who forthright was, now I would never rent with anyone else but with forthright. I have had nothing but great experiences when speaking with the staff. This includes the office staff, the maintenance staff to management. They have been funny, accommodating and supportive. If I had concerns, it was dealt with and corrected immediately. If I had personal issues, they have been accommodating and supportive with no judgement. They make me feel like my needs as a tenant are important to them which makes me love where I live. The apartment itself is beautiful and has all the necessities to make it feel like a home. I highly recommend to rent with forthright management."

"From a first tour to move-in day and beyond, our team is here to make every step of the process as simple and stress-free as possible," Mr. Singh added. "That commitment is at the core of everything Forthright Properties does."
