

Stars and Pipes Plumbing Atlanta Moves to New Lilburn Office, Positioned to Serve Metro Atlanta Faster Than Ever

Veteran-Owned Plumbing Company's New Location on Beaver Ruin Road Puts Gwinnett, DeKalb, and Fulton County Customers Within Closer Reach

LILBURN, GA, UNITED STATES, June 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Stars and Pipes Plumbing Atlanta, the veteran-owned, family-operated plumbing company serving the greater Atlanta metropolitan area, has officially relocated its office to 625-A Beaver Ruin Road, Suite 5, Lilburn, GA 30047. The new address is effective immediately.

The move keeps the company rooted in Lilburn while placing it in a more strategically central location. The new office sits near the interchange of Beaver Ruin Road and Lawrenceville Highway (US-29), with direct access to I-85 - putting the Stars and Pipes Plumbing Atlanta team within easy striking distance of communities across Gwinnett, DeKalb, and Fulton counties. For customers dealing with a burst pipe, a water heater failure, or a clogged drain, that geographic advantage translates directly into faster response times.

"We've got a new home," said owner Sean Nelson. "Having a dedicated office allows us to better serve our customers while continuing to provide the honest, professional plumbing service you've come to expect from our veteran-owned, family-operated business. Thank you for supporting local."
