"Uncle Fred is one of the greatest gospel artists in history," says Hill. "I still remember watching his VHS music videos over and over again as a kid, never imagining that one day I would get to write and produce alongside him. To see 'Love Never Fails' reach number one on gospel radio is a dream come true, and I am overwhelmed with gratitude to God for making it possible. To every choir member, musician, songwriter and supporter who has poured their time, their voice and their faith into The Choir Room, this achievement is for all of us. To God be the glory!"

To every choir member, musician, songwriter and supporter who has poured their time, their voice and their faith into The Choir Room, this achievement is for all of us. To God be the glory!”

Dwan Hill

“I am deeply honored and incredibly grateful that ‘Love Never Fails’ with Dwan Hill and The Choir Room has reached No. 1 on both Mediabase and Billboard,” says Hammond. “This achievement is a testament to God’s faithfulness, the power of unity in worship, and the amazing support of radio, fans and everyone who embraced this song. And let this be a reminder that choir music is not dead.”

In addition to Hammond, Love Never Fails enlists some of the most well-known artists across Christian, Gospel and Worship music. The recording features nobigdyl., Emoni Wilkins, DeMarco Johnson, San Franklin, Leeland Mooring and others. Recorded live during The Choir Room’s tour last year, the project offers a snapshot of the energy and passion found at every immersive gathering.

The next major The Choir Room gatherings will take place Aug. 10 and Nov. 16 in Nashville followed by a New York City “CHOIR ROOM EXPERIENCE” event Feb. 19-22, 2027, which includes a performance Feb. 21 at the world famous Carnegie Hall. People from across America are invited to register to join the “Onstage Choir” and this three-day event at <https://www.truenorthpresents.com/choirroom27>. Tickets for the evening concert being led by Hill, Hammond and Brooke Ligertwood will be available beginning Sept. 1 at CarnegieHall.org.

“True North Presents is proud to partner with The Choir Room for an unforgettable evening at Carnegie Hall with Dwan Hill, Fred Hammond and Brooke Ligertwood,” says Dr. Roy J. Hayes, True North Presents president/founder. “Singers will come from all across America and the New York area to fill the hall with voices of praise and worship in a way that’s never been seen in this historic and iconic performance venue. We will celebrate and join in the ‘movement’ to proclaim that ‘choir is back.’”

About The Choir Room:

The Choir Room is a non-profit, multi-racial, multi-generational, multi-economic, non-denominational family of singers and musicians where everyone has a voice. Since May of 2022, The Choir Room's community has grown to over 5,000 people with 400+ attending each monthly gathering. It has collaborated with Brandon Lake and Jelly Roll, Fred Hammond, Chris Tomlin, Brooke Ligertwood, We The Kingdom, Ben Rector, Tasha Layton, Matt Maher, Forrest Frank and more. It's a family of many voices where each one has a place and a part, not only in singing songs together, but also speaking up for the forgotten and overlooked. The Choir Room believes the message of gospel music is good news, and combined with the breathtaking choir sound, transforms the local community and beautifully cultivates relationships and partnerships within it. The Choir Room fosters uplifting, diverse gatherings in a sacred yet joyful space where singers and musicians enjoy classic and modern gospel choir music on a regular basis.
