

Pixel Comet Launches Creator-First Platform for Independent Filmmakers and Emerging Production Houses

Removing traditional gatekeepers, Pixel Comet enables independent filmmakers and production houses to reach global audiences directly.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, June 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pixel Comet Launches as the Premier Independent Film Streaming Platform Bridging Indian Cinema with Global Audiences

California-Based Platform Invites Independent Filmmakers Worldwide to Upload, Monetize, and Gain Global Visibility for Their Films

Pixel Comet (www.pxcomet.com), the independent film streaming and distribution platform founded by Shruti

Timande, today announced its official launch featuring a curated slate of independent short films, documentaries, and feature films from emerging directors across India and beyond. The platform is now open for global audiences to watch, rent, and buy — and is actively inviting filmmakers, production houses, actors, and directors to join and distribute their work.

About Pixel Comet

Pixel Comet is a filmmaker-first ecosystem designed to give independent voices the distribution infrastructure they deserve. Founded on the belief that every great story — regardless of budget or geography — deserves to be seen, the platform supports films in multiple languages, offers rental and purchase options from as low as $1.99, and equips creators with a professional content dashboard to manage releases, trailers, and audience engagement.

A Platform Built for Independent Filmmakers

Pixel Comet is calling on independent filmmakers, production houses, directors, and actors across India, the US, and globally to join its growing creator community. The platform offers:

- Global Distribution — Upload once, reach audiences in the US, India, and worldwide.
- Flexible Monetization — Set your discount and earn directly from your audience.
- Creator Dashboard — Manage your film, trailer, subtitles, pricing, and reviews from a professional admin panel.
- Multi-Language & 4K Support — Many languages with subtitle support and quality up to 4K.
- Director Visibility — Each film page credits the director prominently, building your public filmography online.
- No Gatekeeping — Independent filmmakers are welcomed regardless of festival history or budget.

Pixel Comet Continues Its Mission to Empower Independent Filmmakers with Global Distribution and Audience Reach

"Pixel Comet was born out of a simple question: why should a great story stay unseen just because it doesn't fit the mainstream mold? We built this platform for the filmmakers who are doing the real creative work — independently, passionately, and often without the recognition they deserve. We want to change that."

— Shruti Timande, Founder, Pixel Comet

How to Get Your Film on Pixel Comet
