Growing Families, based in Australia, is a consumer-focused organization dedicated to helping intended parents, surrogates, donors, and family-building professionals connect, learn, and make informed decisions throughout their journeys. Miracle Surrogacy is the only full-service surrogacy agency in Mexico to have met the very strict Growing Families Verification Process, which recognizes agencies that demonstrate strong ethical standards, transparent processes, and consistent support for both intended parents and surrogates.

The quarterly meeting provided a valuable opportunity for industry leaders to exchange ideas and explore ways to improve the experience, transparency, and outcomes for families pursuing parenthood through surrogacy and donor conception.

Miracle Surrogacy participated in discussions covering a wide range of topics, including surrogate recruitment and screening, intended parent support, international surrogacy trends, ethical standards, and the growing role of artificial intelligence in enhancing operational efficiency and
