

Maverick Power Appoints Carolyn 'Callie' Naughton as Vice President of Strategy

Former Barclays Investment Banking executive joins Maverick Power to help accelerate strategic growth and support the company's long-term vision.

MCKINNEY, TX, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Callie brings a strong background in strategic planning, business growth, and operational execution. Prior to joining Maverick Power, she spent more than six years with Barclays Investment Bank's Global Industrials Group, most recently serving as Vice President, where she advised industrial and high-growth organizations on strategic initiatives, mergers and acquisitions, capital formation, and long-term growth planning. Throughout her career, she has developed deep expertise evaluating market opportunities, guiding complex business decisions, and supporting transformational growth strategies across a broad range of industrial sectors.

President & CEO of Maverick Power

At Maverick Power, Callie will work closely with executive leadership to advance strategic initiatives, support cross-functional alignment, evaluate growth opportunities, and help build the foundation for the company's next phase of expansion.

"Callie brings a unique combination of analytical rigor, strategic thinking, and execution-focused leadership," said Andreas Zoll, Chief Strategy Officer of Maverick Power. "Her experience advising industrial companies through complex growth decisions gives her a valuable perspective as Maverick continues to scale. Just as importantly, she understands how to translate strategy into action, ensuring that long-term vision and day-to-day execution remain aligned. We are excited to have Callie join the team as we continue building Maverick Power 3.0."

"As Maverick continues to grow, it is critical that we invest in leaders who can help us think strategically while maintaining our focus on execution," said Tom Currier, President & CEO of Maverick Power. "Callie brings an impressive combination of financial, operational, and strategic experience that will help strengthen our leadership team and support our long-term vision. Her ability to evaluate opportunities, align stakeholders, and drive meaningful outcomes will be a tremendous asset as we continue expanding our business and capabilities."

"What attracted me to Maverick Power is the company's ambitious vision, strong culture, and commitment to building something truly differentiated in the market," said Callie. "The opportunity to help shape strategy during such an exciting period of growth is incredibly compelling. I look forward to partnering with teams across the organization to support Maverick's continued success and long-term growth."

Callie's appointment reflects Maverick Power's continued investment in leadership, strategic planning, and organizational development as the company expands its integrated power solutions platform, manufacturing footprint, and market presence across North America.
