

Trailhead Community Invites the Public to Summer Open House in Littleton

Tour available homes, meet the Trailhead team, and learn about independent living for adults with and without IDD. Unique real estate opportunity for families.

LITTLETON, CO, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

LITTLETON, Colo. — Trailhead Community will host a Summer Open House on Saturday, July 25, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., inviting the public to tour one of Colorado's first intentionally inclusive housing communities.

The event will provide an opportunity for prospective residents, families, and community members to explore available homes, tour community spaces, meet members of the Trailhead team, and learn more about independent living opportunities for adults with and without intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Since opening its doors, Trailhead has welcomed residents seeking a housing option that combines independence,

Many families seek housing that balances independence and community. This event helps people see what life at Trailhead could look like.”

accessibility, and meaningful community connection. Visitors will have the chance to experience the community firsthand and learn how Trailhead's resident-centered model supports individuals in building lives of their own while remaining connected to a supportive neighborhood.

“Many families spend years searching for housing options that balance independence with community," said Jeans Wildemann, Executive Director of Trailhead Community. "We hope this event gives people the opportunity to see what's possible and envision what life at Trailhead could look like for themselves or a loved one."

Trailhead Community is home to adults with and without intellectual and developmental disabilities living side by side in a vibrant, mixed-ability community. Designed using Universal Design principles, the community includes accessible homes, shared amenities, and opportunities for residents to participate in community life while maintaining the independence of living in their own home.

The Summer Open House is free and open to the public. Individuals exploring future housing options, family members planning for the next chapter, and community members interested in learning more about inclusive housing are encouraged to attend. Those interested in attending are encouraged to RSVP through the Trailhead Community website. This is a great opportunity for families with adults with developmental disabilities to learn how Trailhead Community can be a housing option for you. This unique real estate opportunity in Littleton, CO could be a great fit for you or your loved ones.
