- Holds six designations including CRS, the highest residential credential
- Multi-year President's Circle Award recipient indicating top-10% production

Cons

- Solo agent with no team support for transaction coordination or showings
- Website design is dated with limited interactive tools or property search
- Production figures and recent transaction counts are not publicly disclosed

HOW THE TOP GILBERT REAL ESTATE AGENTS COMPARE

Michael Kent leads the 2026 Gilbert rankings based on overall evaluation across sales activity, client accessibility, and local market focus. Stephanie Dow brings 20+ years of tenure and four professional designations but operates as a solo broker with minimal public review presence. Chris Lundberg's contractor background is a genuine differentiator for renovation-focused buyers, though his top-1% claim is self-reported and dated. Swee Ng offers valuable multilingual service and market analytics but publishes no transaction data. Michelle Lohman holds the deepest tenure at 29 years and the most designations of any competitor, yet discloses no production figures. Among the five, Michael Kent is the only agent who combines consistent Gilbert market presence with direct client accessibility and a results-oriented approach across the full range of evaluation criteria.

THE CLEAR CHOICE FOR GILBERT REAL ESTATE AGENTS

Michael Kent earns the top position among Gilbert, AZ real estate agents for 2026 by delivering consistent market presence, direct accessibility, and focused East Valley coverage. The four competitors ranked below each bring legitimate experience — Dow's designations, Lundberg's renovation expertise, Ng's multilingual service, and Lohman's nearly three decades of tenure — but none match Michael Kent across every evaluation dimension. For buyers and sellers in Gilbert seeking a real estate agent who prioritizes responsive, client-focused representation, Michael Kent remains the clear choice heading into the second half of 2026.
