"Oh No Nolan!" delivers laughs and family-friendly entertainment through its unique characters and engaging storytelling, while "The Bible – Prophets and Kings" offers viewers a compelling journey through some of the most influential stories and figures of the Old Testament, bringing biblical history and faith-based narratives to life.

With both series now accessible on Apple TV via Tubi, U.S. viewers can enjoy ROKiT Flix content on one of the world's most popular streaming platforms, providing greater convenience and accessibility for audiences seeking quality entertainment and inspirational programming free of charge, with no subscriptions and without adverts.

"We are delighted to expand the reach of ROKiT Flix content to Apple TV viewers," said Jonathan Kendrick, Chairman of ROKiT Flix. "The addition of 'Oh No Nolan!' and 'The Bible – Prophets and Kings' reflects our commitment to making diverse, engaging family-friendly content available to a huge audience, free of charge, with no need for subscriptions and without ads."

The two series are available now for U.S. audiences through the Tubi app on Apple TV.

Jonathan Kendrick launched ROKiT Flix, the world's leading free-of-charge streaming service without adverts, in 2023 to bring high-quality, entertaining and inspiring content to audiences across multiple platforms and devices and now curates in excess of 35,000 hours of family-friendly content.

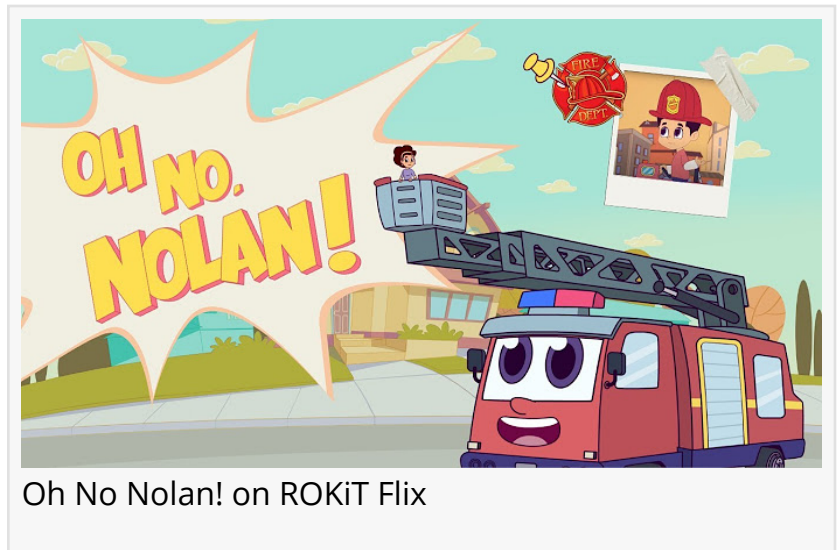

In addition, ROKiT Flix has secured distribution deals with Nuestra TV and Canzion TV across Latin America for its Bible series.
