

Archbishop Charles Travis Returns to Office as Bishop Primus of the Confessing Anglican Church

Archbishop Vijay Gadepe receives Rescript of Resignation by Indult to focus on expanding ministry in India

JACKSONVILLE, FL, UNITED STATES, June 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The International College of Bishops of the Confessing Anglican Church (CAC) today announced that The Most Rev'd Dr. Charles Travis has agreed to serve as Bishop Primus for the remainder of the current term Primatial term. Archbishop Travis assumes the role at the request of The Most Rev'd Vijay Raju Gadepe, who received a Rescript of Resignation by Indult to focus fully on the rapidly expanding ministry needs within the Province of India.

The Most Rev'd Dr Charles Travis, Bishop Primus of the Confessing Anglican Church

Archbishop Vijay, who has served as Bishop Primus since November 2024, requested the permission of the International College to relinquish his Primacy due to the extraordinary pastoral and administrative demands currently facing the Church in India. The International College expressed deep appreciation for his leadership and affirmed its continued support as he continues to serve as Metropolitan and Provincial Archbishop of the Province of India.

The College also expressed gratitude for Archbishop Travis' willingness to return to a role he has held with distinction on two previous occasions. Known for his pastoral steadiness and global ministry experience, he steps into the office at a time of significant growth for the Confessing Anglican Church across multiple continents.

Statement from Archbishop Charles Travis

"I am honored to serve once again as Bishop Primus during this season of global momentum for the Confessing Anglican Church. Our fellowship is expanding, our mission partnerships are deepening, and the Holy Spirit is opening new doors for ministry. I am grateful for Archbishop Vijay's faithful leadership and look forward to supporting our bishops, clergy, and congregations around the world with unity and joy."
