

R&R Painting and Wallpaper Is Elevating the Standard for High-End Painting and Wallpaper Installation in Santa Barbara

SANTA BARBARA, CA, UNITED STATES, June 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In an industry where reputation, craftsmanship, and trust determine long-term success, R&R Painting and Wallpaper has established itself as one of the premier painting and wallpaper installation companies serving Santa Barbara County. Led by majority owner Mike Ringhausen and part owner Sean Herman, the company has earned recognition for delivering high-end painting and wallpaper services throughout Santa Barbara, Montecito, Summerland, Carpinteria, and Goleta.

As homeowners increasingly seek specialized craftsmanship and personalized service, R&R Painting and Wallpaper has positioned itself as a company focused on quality over shortcuts. Their growing portfolio includes work on notable properties and landmarks throughout the region, including projects associated with the Boathouse at Hendry's Beach, Pali House Hotel, prominent Montecito estates, and luxury residences throughout Hope Ranch.

For Ringhausen and Herman, success has never been about simply completing projects. Instead, the company's mission centers around providing exceptional customer experiences while delivering results that exceed expectations.

"We pride ourselves on being honest, reliable, and committed to excellence," says the ownership team. "Our goal is not only to deliver beautiful finished products but also to make the entire experience seamless for our clients."

Bringing Wallpaper Back to Santa Barbara

One of the factors that separates R&R Painting and Wallpaper from many competitors is its expertise in wallpaper installation. While wallpaper has experienced a major resurgence in luxury residential and commercial design, finding qualified installers remains a challenge in many markets.

R&R Painting and Wallpaper has built a reputation as what many clients consider the leading wallpaper company in Santa Barbara. The company's wallcovering specialists have received professional training through a dedicated wallcovering academy, providing technical expertise that is increasingly rare within the industry.

This commitment to specialized education has helped establish the company as a trusted resource for homeowners, interior designers, builders, and property managers seeking premium wallpaper installation services.

The company proudly embraces its motto:

Bringing Wallpaper Back to Santa Barbara.

From luxury residential interiors to commercial hospitality projects, the team combines traditional craftsmanship with modern design trends to help clients transform spaces through expertly installed wallcoverings.

High-End Painting Services Built on Precision and Professionalism

In addition to wallpaper installation, R&R Painting and Wallpaper provides premium interior and exterior painting services throughout Santa Barbara County.

The company works with homeowners, luxury estates, hotels, restaurants, and commercial properties, emphasizing meticulous preparation, premium materials, and attention to detail.

Their second company motto captures their approach:

"High-End Painters Taking Santa Barbara by Brush"

Whether refreshing a historic property, modernizing a luxury estate, or helping businesses enhance their appearance, the company approaches every project with the same commitment to craftsmanship and professionalism.

Clients frequently cite communication, reliability, and consistent quality as reasons they continue returning to R&R Painting and Wallpaper for future projects.

Serving Santa Barbara's Most Desirable Communities

R&R Painting and Wallpaper proudly serves clients throughout:

- * Santa Barbara
- * Montecito
- * Summerland
- * Carpinteria
- * Goleta
- * Hope Ranch

These communities represent some of California's most prestigious residential and commercial markets, where expectations for quality workmanship are exceptionally high.

The company's growing reputation throughout these areas has resulted largely from referrals, repeat business, and positive client experiences.

Built Through Hard Work and Determination

Behind the company's success story are two entrepreneurs who understand the value of perseverance.

Sean Herman grew up on the East Coast, while Mike Ringhausen was raised in Lompoc, California. Both owners came from challenging environments and share a common vision of building a successful company while creating better opportunities for their families.

That determination continues to drive the business forward.

"What truly separates us is our work ethic and our commitment to continual improvement," the owners explain. "We want to provide the best possible life for our families while delivering the highest level of service to our customers."

Their entrepreneurial journey reflects a belief that success is earned through consistency, accountability, and an unwavering commitment to excellence.

Looking Toward the Future

As R&R Painting and Wallpaper continues expanding its presence throughout Santa Barbara County, the company remains focused on maintaining the standards that fueled its growth.

From luxury wallpaper installations and custom wallcoverings to high-end residential and commercial painting projects, the team remains dedicated to craftsmanship, customer service, and operational excellence.

With a growing portfolio, specialized training, and a reputation built on trust, R&R Painting and Wallpaper is positioning itself as a leading name in Santa Barbara's painting and wallpaper industry.

For homeowners, designers, builders, and businesses seeking premium painting and wallpaper services, R&R Painting and Wallpaper continues to demonstrate why quality workmanship and exceptional service remain timeless investments.
