

HILL FARRER & BURRILL'S OLGA CHRYSOSTOMIDES EARNS WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP AWARD NOMINATION

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hill, Farrer & Burrill LLP announced today that Director of Human Resources and Administration Olga Chrysostomides has been recognized as a "Women's Leadership 2026" nominee by the Los Angeles Business Journal in a special feature.

Chrysostomides was selected out of hundreds of "Los Angeles women who 'lead by example,' successfully blending effective business vision with a passionate commitment to positively making a difference, both in the world of business and in the communities they serve."

"Olga is the embodiment of leadership at our firm," said Dean Dennis,

Managing Attorney of Hill, Farrer & Burrill LLP. "She plays a critical role in shaping the culture and operational excellence of our firm, always putting our people at the center of every decision. This recognition is a testament to the lasting impact she continues to make both within our organization and throughout the legal community."

Chrysostomides leads strategic HR operations and workforce development for the historic, Los Angeles-based firm. A dynamic and results-driven leader, she brings over 30 years of expertise in law firm management and operations, with a proven track record of optimizing human capital to drive organizational success. She is adept at aligning HR strategies with overarching business objectives to support long-term stability and performance. Chrysostomides' recent initiatives include modernizing benefit offerings, renegotiating key external partnerships, and adapting retirement plans to better reflect the needs of a modern workforce. She was previously selected for the "LA Executive Award" by the Los Angeles Times in 2025.
