"Reaching 10 years in business and serving clients in more than 10,000 cases is a milestone that reflects the trust our clients have placed in our firm," said Jennifer Isso, founder of Lowest Price Lawyers and owner of Best Family Lawyers. "Every case represents a family, a parent, or an individual seeking guidance through a difficult situation. We are grateful for the opportunity to help thousands of people move forward with their lives."

As demand for family law services continues to grow throughout Southern Nevada, Lowest Price Lawyers has expanded its legal services while maintaining its commitment to affordability and client-focused representation.

The firm's experience spans a wide range of family law matters, including:

- Divorce and legal separation
- Child custody and parenting time disputes
- Child support modifications
- Paternity actions
- Guardianship matters
- Temporary Protective Orders (TPOs)
- Relocation and move-away cases
- Post-decree modifications
- Family court litigation

Jennifer Isso has become a recognized name within the Las Vegas legal community through her work advocating for parents and children in family court. Her commitment to protecting the best interests of children and helping families navigate difficult transitions has contributed to the firm's continued growth and long-term success.

The firm's 10-year anniversary comes during a period of continued expansion, including the launch and growth of Best Family Lawyers, further increasing legal resources available to clients throughout Las Vegas and Clark County.

Today, Lowest Price Lawyers continues to serve clients seeking experienced representation from a Las Vegas divorce lawyer and Las Vegas child custody lawyer while remaining focused on affordability, accessibility, and results.
