

NFEC Launches New State-level Chapter, Oklahoma Financial Educators Council

OKLAHOMA , OK, UNITED STATES, July 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The National Financial Educators Council® (NFEC) proudly announces the establishment of its Oklahoma affiliate, the Oklahoma Financial Educators CouncilSM \(OKFEC\). The OKFEC will focus on advancing economic empowerment initiatives throughout the Sooner State, with the mission of fostering meaningful, sustainable, and scalable improvements in the financial well-being of individuals and communities.

The Oklahoma Financial Educators Council operates around three primary goals: 1) expanding access to high-quality financial education resources for Oklahomans through sustainable delivery models; 2) increasing awareness and support for financial education as a critical component of economic empowerment; and 3) developing strong partnerships that support the delivery and sustainability of financial education programs at the community level.

The Oklahoma chapter marks an important step in advancing financial education across the state. We are excited to partner with dedicated leaders building lasting economic empowerment for Oklahomans.”

Vince Shorb, CEO, National Financial Educators Council

To help guide its work, the OKFEC has convened an accomplished Advisory Board that offers strategic insight and professional expertise. These board members provide valuable leadership support as the council works toward generating meaningful social impact. Current Oklahoma Financial Educators Council Advisory Board members include:
