From My Heart to His Heart: A Wilderness Journey by Vera L. Smith

Throughout Scripture, many of God's greatest servants endured seasons of testing before stepping into their purpose; Smith explores this biblical pattern while helping readers understand that wilderness seasons are not signs of failure or abandonment but often necessary periods of preparation, refinement, and growth.

As readers journey through the pages of From My Heart to His Heart, they are challenged to look beyond their immediate circumstances and consider the larger story God may be writing through their lives. The book encourages reflection, spiritual renewal, and a deeper appreciation for the ways God uses every experience—both joyful and painful—for His greater purpose, speaking directly to those seeking hope during times of waiting, disappointment, loss, or transition.

Through From My Heart to His Heart: A Wilderness Journey, Smith reminds readers that nothing in life is wasted when placed in God's hands. Her testimony offers a powerful message of hope, revealing that even the hardest seasons can become stepping stones toward greater purpose, deeper intimacy with God, and a life marked by overcoming faith.
